AAPC Statement on Tariff Agreement

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Governor Matt Blunt, president of the American Automotive Policy Council, today issued the following statement:

"We appreciate the Administration for its decision to not impose tariffs on Mexican products. Access to free and fair trade is what allows the U.S. auto industry to continue to invest in its U.S. operations. We strongly support the Administration's United States-Mexico-Canada agreement and urge Congress to pass it without delay."

The American Automotive Policy Council (AAPC) is a Washington, D.C. association that represents the common public policy interests of its member companies FCA US LLC, Ford Motor Company and General Motors Company.
