ICYMI: AAPC Urges Congress to Pass USMCA in Detroit News Op-ed

WASHINGTON, D.C. - In a Detroit News op-ed published today, Governor Matt Blunt, president of the American Automotive Policy Council (AAPC), urged Congress to pass the USMCA. AAPC represents FCA US LLC, Ford Motor Company and General Motors Company.

“Free and fair trade is vital to growing the American auto sector and its manufacturing partners up and down the supply chain. The new United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement is essential to maintaining the competitiveness of our American and regional auto industries, and that’s why U.S. automakers are urging Congress to pass the agreement without delay.”

The complete op-ed is available here.
